

ArcPad Xtreme™ fixture is combined of two separate fixtures that can be independently mechanically adjusted.

Photometric data for ArcPad Xtreme™ is measured only for one part of the whole fixture and it is intended to add this part twice in light design software.

In basic position the two parts of the fixture is 256mm apart see figure 1. Then each part can be rotated 5°-95° according to figure 2.

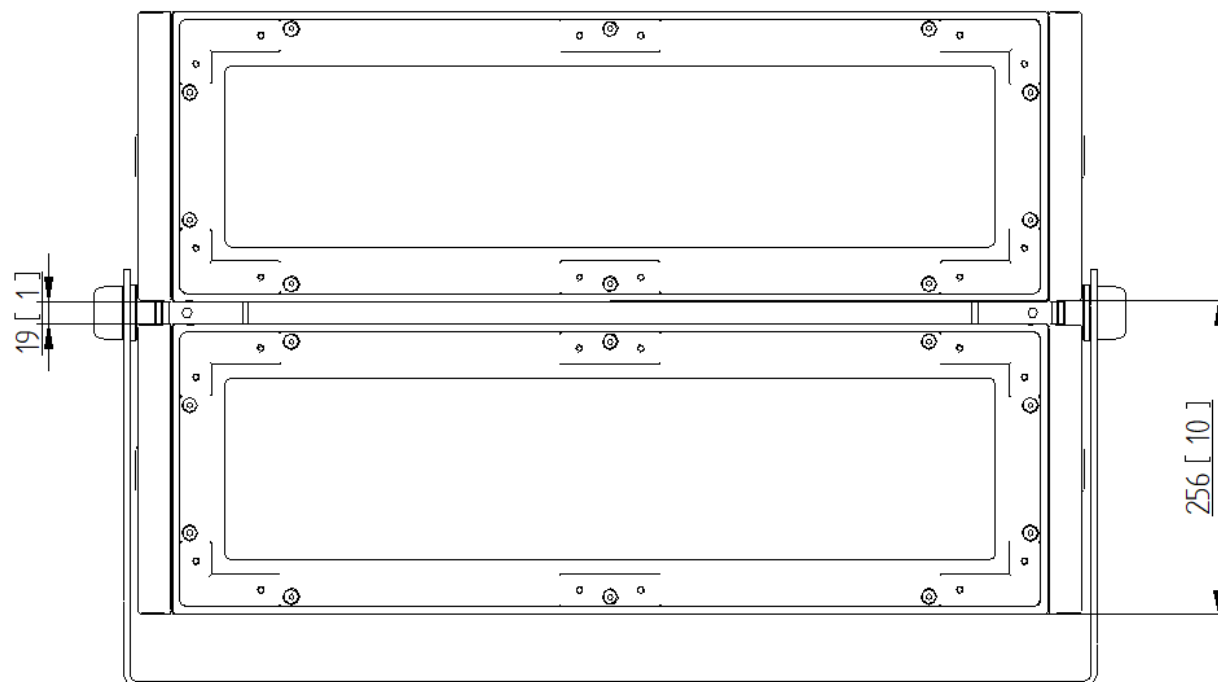

Figure 1.

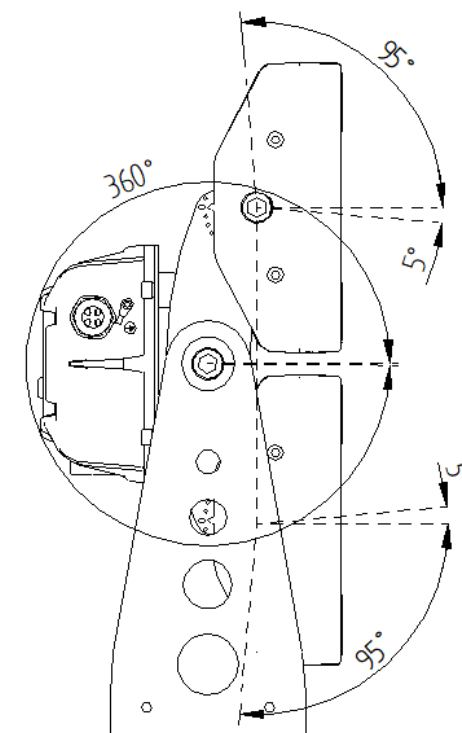

Figure 2.